WALKING SYDNEY

Walking Sydney specialises in interpretive history. Our historical walking tours are led by storytellers and include short performances along the way. Our storytellers love a good yarn and actors are talented and engaging. Together they bring history to life.

The Bloke & The Larrikin

The route showcases Sydney's oldest neighbourhood and takes people along the Hungry Mile, Barangaroo and Millers Point. Guests will see unique views of the Harbour and the Sydney Harbour Bridge.

This tour takes people back to the 1870s through the 1930s to the present. On this tour people will hear rarely told stories from Sydney's history, see a performance of The Bloke and learn about the Hungry Mile and the building of the Sydney Harbour Bridge. They will also meet a Larrikin and be taken back to Sydney & The Rocks in the 1870s. They'll hear about the Push Gangs, riots and smuggling.
